BARS DOWN ON SALE OF ARMS

ALL RESTRICTIONS REMOVED,
AND REBELS REJOICE OVER
NEW ORDER

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 4.—Notification has been sent American customs agents along the border and army officers commanding patrols, that President Wilson has raised the embargo on munitions of war.

This is the first time in four years since the Mexico civil war started, that munitions of war are being allowed to be shipped across the border through regular channels of commerce.

Villa and Carranza are overjoyed over Wilson's actions. They plan to import arms suitable to equip immense armies for the speedy overthrow of Huerta.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 4.—Newspapers attribute the lifting of the embargo to the commercial interests of the United States which are alleged to have influenced Wilson. American manufacturers are dissatisfied with being unable to sell war materials while foreign manufacturers are permitted, so they brought pressure to bear on Washington, is charged.

The street patrol was doubled during the night as a precaution against an anti-American uprising, as a result of lifting the embargo, but there was no disturbance.

The afternoon papers heaped a deluge of maledictions upon Wilson.

JUAREZ, Feb. 4.—Scores of representatives of arms and ammunition manufacturers are arriving. Consignments of munitions of war have already been taken across the boundary. The practice of searching every one crossing the boundary has been dropped.

THIEVES PROWL ROUND OUTSKIRTS OF THE CAMP

BREAK INTO PROSPECTOR'S CAB
IN AND STEAL HIS STORES AND PISTOL

Martin Dean, former mayor of Altman, Col., the toughest and highest incorporated town in the United States, wishes he could secure leave from Chief of Police Evans to do as he pleases with a bunch of low sneaks who are making a living by preying on prospectors working on claims in the vicinity of Tonopah. If he had his way he would land the bunch right where they belong, but no action has been taken by the officers so far as reported.

Martin is growing old, but he has the bright blue eye of Ireland and a firm jaw that has a sinister look when he grows warm under the collar. When he returned to his cabin on the King of Tonopah claims last Sunday evening, after an absence of a couple of hours, he found his cabin had been entered and his stock of bacon, bread, flour and all other commodities carried off. The thieves also took a revolver.

The padlock had been picked by an expert who is supposed to be one of the men who robbed the Toggery during the last boxing contest. Martin placed a new padlock on the door next day, but the following night the cabin was visited again, presumably by the same men, who thought they would find a fresh stock of grub, but their skeleton keys would not unlock the new lock, and they departed, leaving an iron gas pipe. On Monday the old prospector did a little detective work on his own account and located a gang of hoboes down near the Cash Boy, one of whose number he had seen lurking around the King of Tonopah, and he thinks the citizens of the camp should be warned against the gang.

Martin adds that the worse luck that could happen the bunch would be to eat the batch of bread taken from his cabin, as it was flat and as indigestible as porphyry.

SISTERS WILL NOT PAY FOR BURYING DEAD

FUNERAL OF MRS. CLARK WILL BE HELD TOMORROW FROM UNDERTAKING PARLORS

Tomorrow afternoon at the parlors of Wonacott & Cavanaugh the funeral of the late Mrs. Marion Clark will be held, according to the ritual of the Episcopal church. The sisters of the dead woman in Oakland and Berkeley at first showed a disposition to take care of the remains, but, after hearing that the burden would fall on them, they refused to answer telegrams or state anything more than they would not pay any of the expenses.

Owing to the fact that the old lady was a pioneer of the camp a few old friends started out this morning with a subscription list for the purpose of raising funds to give the deceased a decent burial.

Mrs. Clark was born in Plattsburg, N. Y., and was a descendant on her mother's side, of Marquis de La Fayette, and on her father's side of Captain Brossett, master mariner.

If it's of exceptional value at the price, it's sure to be advertised in the Bonanza, else the merchant would be hopelessly unprogressive.

DISARMING OF BOTH FACTIONS AND ESTABLISHMENT OF GUARDS IMPORTED FROM OTHER STATES

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Protest against the use of firearms and the employment of armed guards and private detectives in labor disputes and strikes was made by Secretary W. B. Wilson, of the department of labor, in his first annual report submitted yesterday to President Wilson. He recommends that congress enact legislation "within its constitutional limitations to regulate this business in the interest of public peace and order."

Use of Firearms.

"The use of firearms," said Secretary Wilson, "in a species of private warfare in connection with labor strikes calls for serious consideration. Groups of men on both sides, without military or police authority for it, have used firearms with fatal effect in the coal strike in southern Colorado. These arms and the ammunition have doubtless been procured through interstate commerce, and many of the armed men are said to have been imported into Colorado from other states through a business concern engaged commercially across state lines in supplying corporations with an armed and trained private soldiery or police in numbers running into hundreds, and even thousands. In connection with the Pere Marquette strike in Michigan, armed guards, furnished by agencies in other states supplying men to take the place of local strikers, accompanied those men to Grand Rapids. They were there turned back by the United States marshal under instructions from the district judge. In the Calumet copper mining region armed guards under contract with the employers were forwarded to the locality by agencies in other states."

Four Feet of High Grade Ore Opened In the Nevada Wonder

The local office of the Tonopah Mining company of Nevada is in receipt of advice from Mr. C. A. Higgins, the president of the Nevada Wonder Mining company, whose property is located at Wonder, Nev., that the north drift on the eighth level has, for several days, been in the ore shoot that was struck on the level above. A sample taken across four feet of the face of the drift assayed $56.57. The south drift on the tenth level has, for several days, been in an ore shoot supposed to be the one encountered on the eighth level. The ore is improving as the drift is continuing. Samples taken from four feet in the face of the drift assayed $101.97.

As soon as the length of the ore shoot mentioned, and the width of the ledge is known, no time will be published, as will each important strike on the property.

Average values in the Nevada Wonder have ruled from $20 to $25.

Federal Divorce Law Contains Clause Preventing Remarrying

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 4.—Divorce with the right to remarry will be forever prohibited in the United States and possessions by an amendment to the constitution proposed by Senator Ransdell, of Louisiana, in the enactment of uniform marriage laws with provisions for separation without permission to remarry.

Ransdell gave statistics showing an enormous increase in the number of divorces yearly.

SPITE FENCE GOES DOWN BEFORE RECENT STORM

ONE OF THE LANDMARKS OF
FLORENCE AVENUE LAID LOW
BY A SIXTY-MILE WIND

The old spite fence on Florence avenue, which has been pointed out for years as one of the distinguishing marks of early history, is no more. At least it does not rear its head proudly on the rocky hillside of Mizpah hill. It is humbled in the dust, and there is no chance of any one going to the trouble of rebuilding the obstruction.

A. J. Poak, formerly of the leasing firm of Poak, Steen & Cieja, of Manhattan, erected the fence to get even with a neighbor who violated the proprieties of the neighborhood by putting up a house extending to the sidewalk line. Mr. Poak had established the fashion in that quarter of building back from the street and planting flowers and setting out trees in front. This laudable example was copied by others until the arrival of a stranger who refused to be governed by the wish of the adjoining property owners and insisted on placing his house right up to the street line.

There was no redress at law, as a man had the right to build what he pleased and how he pleased, so long as he did not make a nuisance of his premises.

In view of these circumstances Mr. Poak took the law into his own hands by ordering the building of a fence eight feet high and running directly from the street line to the rear of the lot. The fence was built and Poak and others who tried to beautify the camp got their satisfaction. The stranger had over reached himself by placing half a dozen windows on the open side of the lot overlooking the Poak grounds, and the construction of the fence left his best rooms dark and spoiled the interior of what was an otherwise very attractive home.

Now it is all over and a matter of history. The gale that tore things loose from their moorings during the recent hurricane sidwiped the spite fence, and there ends the story.

FIVE CANDIDATES INITIATED BY ELKS LAST EVENING

SPECIAL PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR THE BENEFIT OF NOVICES

Five candidates got the goat of the Elks last night, but they had to ride it instead of taking the animal off to pasture in their own feed lot. The boys had been wised up since the Ely initiation, and the lucky Capricornus was feeling in the best of spirits for the occasion. The sufferers were Paul Weiss, Sam Amigo, Henry Seltz, George Garrison and Thomas Riswold.

After the doctors completed poulticing the victims they were escorted to a luncheon and then all hands joined together and sang that good old chorus, "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

MARRIAGE LICENSE

A marriage license was issued this morning to Edward B. Hicks and Mary E. Fritz, both of Round Mountain.

REV. AKED CALLED A HERETIC

UNORTHODOX SERMON LAST
SUNDAY MAY FORCE EARLY RETIREMENT

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4.—Rev. Charles Aked, a clergyman of renown, will be asked by the church federation of San Francisco to resign as president. Because he said from the pulpit of his church, the First Congregational, last Sunday, that he didn't believe in the miraculous conception of Christ.

The Presbyterian Ministers' association wrote a communication complaining of the unorthodox stand of Rev. Aked, and requesting his withdrawal from the federation.

Dr. Aked said he probably would resign as a result of the complaint. He didn't want to hold the office unless unanimously wanted.

Extension Sends $25,000 Bullion

The Tonopah Extension sent out this morning ten bars of bullion, weighing 18,745 ounces, valued at $15,000. This should be added to the odd shipment of $10,000 that went out on the first ahead of the regular date for sending bullion from the mill, making a total of $25,000 for the second half of January.
